1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 2202 and 2241 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 2193 and 2232 require the heating rate to be “less than about 1oC per day”, while claims 2202 and 2241, which depend from these claims, calls for a heating rate of “about 1oC/day”. Accordingly, claims 2202 and 2241 are both indefinite and comprise improper dependent claims in calling for a heating rate outside the range of their parent claim. In this regard, a dependent claim must include all the features of the parent claim, and then specify an additional limitation.

3. Applicant's arguments filed with the amendment have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Contrary to applicant's assertion, dependent claims 2202 and 2241 are still outside the scope of the parent claims 2193 and 2232.

4. Claims 2193-2200, 2203-2239, 2242-2269, 5396-5405 and 5407-5410 are allowed.

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
